RECREATIONAL PERMITS

Lewis & Clark Timberlands (LCT), will be offering an unlimited number of recreational access permits starting June 1, 2018 for the 2018 permit season.

The annual Recreation Permit is not designed as a profit center. No fees are planned for the permit system.

2018 permits will be valid from June 1, 2018 through May 31, 2019.

All recreational activities on LCT's Oregon properties will require a recreational access permit.

LCT will have a regular presence on the timberlands to help assure a positive experience for permit holders. It is also designed to help protect permit holders from system abusers.

Information regarding fire closure, safety issues and policy change will be communicated through text, email and notices on the GreenWood Resources website.

Walk-in/drive-in open gate policies shall remain similar to 2017. Limited gates will be open during general rifle deer and elk seasons. Non-motorized access shall be in effect the remainder of the year.

To obtain an Access Permit you must be a registered member.
